

Kenya Alexandra Sterling

Kenya is a 19 year old writer and actor originally from greater Manchester.

Training

Royal Exchange Young Company

From 2015 - 2017 performances with the Young Company include:

We Were Told There Was Dancing, Directed by Matt Hassall, promenade,(2017)    The Space Between Us, verbatim, Physical theatre, Directed by Andy Barry,(2017)

The Factory, Directed by Matt Hassall, promenade, devised (2015)

ALT Actors

Kenya performed scenes from:

Yen, Brilliant Adventures, Britannia Waves The Rules, Mogadishu. Showcased at Southwark Playhouse and Royal Exchange Theatre, Directed by Toby Clarke (2018)

Work

Working on R&D and script in hand performance at Shoreditch Town Hall. For a new play with Fuel Theatre titled 'Burn Baby Burn' (2018)

Guest role of Harriet Wakefield in Holby City aired on BBC ONE January (2019).

Write To Play at The Bush theatre in association with Graeae, script in hand performance of Charlotte Maxwell's new writing 'Rhubarb' (2019)

Guest role of Caz Morahan in Doctors BBC ONE filmed, yet to air (2019)

Two hander performance at The OvalHouse 'I AM' new writing by Saffia Kavaz (2019)

Writing Work

In 2017 Kenya took part in speech writing in association with The Almeida Theatre. Their speech titled 'Do You See Me' can be found on YouTube.